40 YEARS

FOR THE
CONSCIOUS CONSUMER

Shopping secondhand, ethically produced and locally made is good for the planet. It also ensures that whatever you buy is beautifully unique!

AMERICAN CLASSICS MARKETPLACE, Colorado's largest antique mall, offers dozens of vendors with endless treasures to explore. Whether you're looking for a small trinket to remember your trip by or large artworks and furniture, you'll find your next favorite thing.

A community-favorite contemporary art gallery, AURIC GALLERY sells handcrafted ceramics, jewelry and other masterpieces. The best part? It's all made by local artists!

Whatever you're craving, it's Downtown

One square mile, endless independent options

Eat • Drink • Shop • Explore

@Downtown\_CS

If you're grabbing something for the foodie in your life, look no further than HUNT + GATHER.

This artisan market showcases the best of Colorado's food producers.

Stop into VINTAGE RELICS to discover a gorgeous collection of vintage clothing, jewelry, unique decor and so much more! You'll find this thoughtfully curated shop tucked in the New South End of Downtown Colorado Springs.

YOBEL is a boutique that exclusively stocks sustainable and ethically made clothing for men and women. After shopping, grab a drink at the bar and check out local art in the store's expansive gallery!

If you find yourself east of Colorado Springs, OUR RED BARN RANCH is worth the detour. This alpaca ranch creates artisan products from their very own alpacas' fleece!

WESTWARD FOUND VINTAGE carries gems from the west like great denim and sturdy outerwear. You can also grab one-of-a-kind, handmade pieces crafted from upcycled materials.
